ENGAGEMENT #3. STUDENTS PRESENT THEIR ORGANIZING STRATEGY MAP TO THE ¡DALE! FAMILY.

Objective:

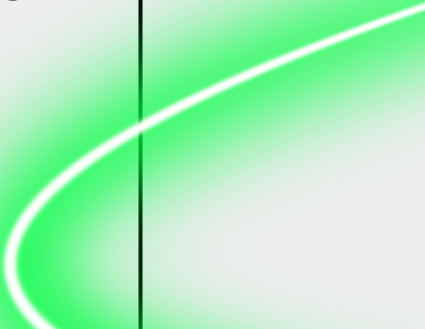

- To create a warm space where students can present their organizing strategy map to other ¡DALE! participants. Students will present their educational project’s objective and two tactics they plan to practice.

Intended Outcomes:

- For students to successfully present their educational project’s objective and tactics.
- For participants to learn about each other’s projects, offer recommendations, and to strategize ways to support each other.

PARTICIPANTS:
• ¡DALE! STUDENTS & ADVOCATES
• COORDINATORS
• SUPPORT STAFF

SPEAKER:
• GRICELDA CORREA FROM ON THE MARGINS

ENGAGEMENT #4. ACCOUNTABILITY & COMMUNICATION FOR AN EFFECTIVE CAMPAIGN

Objective:

- To help students and advocates to critically reflect on the power of community accountability and effective communication in organizing.

Intended Outcomes:

- Students and advocates will learn from panelists how they define and experience community accountability and effective communication when organizing for justice.
- Students will be encouraged to reflect on their existing accountability practices. They will also be asked to consider how to cultivate community accountability in their ¡DALE! team.

Important definitions: Communication is the process of transmitting ideas and information.*
